

ORGANS

FOR THE Parlor and Chapel

One of the most beautiful pictures in the home, a church or a Sunday school, is an organ—one that is built to suit the home, the congregation and the financial condition of the people. This is what a National Baptist organ will do.

The parlor organs are in three styles:

Style No. 2 is 5 octaves, action P, oak case only.

Style No. 3 is 5 and 6 octaves, oak case only.

Style No. 5 is 5 and 6 octaves, case is oak or walnut.

Style No. 75 is our new design. It is quarter sawed, golden oak polish and is put up in a six octave case.

ACQUITTAL OF RINDY DILLARD.

Rindy Dillard, who killed Mollie Thompson several months ago, was acquitted Wednesday evening after the jury had deliberated about an hour. It is well to call attention to an account contained in one of the morning papers, in part, as follows:

"Judge Hart charged the jury at the afternoon session. There was a number of Negroes in the court room when the jury reported, and Judge Hart requested in advance that there be no demonstration." From the above it appears that the Judge anticipated an acquittal.

The same account goes on and states further in these words:

"A man whose name was not mentioned in the trial is said to have caused Mollie Thompson to attack the defendant."

It is to be remembered that at the time of the killing, it was reported that a white man was at the bottom of the trouble between the two Negro women. Now, how could there be a complete and fair review of the case of the people against Rindy Dillard, with the chief instigator of the tragedy eliminated from it? Why was he not compelled to give testimony in the case made possible by his conviction? Had he been a Negro, could the case of the people against the defendant have been tried without his evidence? Would it have been? Was it right that this man—whose name was—should be shielded from the limelight of publicity, any more so than the dusky damsels with whom he associated? Did not the association of the three place them all on common level of "social equality?" When crime resulted from their triplicate relations, were not the surviving two answerable to the people as principal and accessory to the death of the other? Why smother the man's name clandestinely? Answer, ye gods!
